2. This is the civil application for production of certain documents at the time of final hearing of the L.P.A. We have perused the documents. These documents are pertaining to the service of the appellant which are necessary for appreciating his service conditions and payment due to him and work taken from him. Therefore, we direct the respondent to produce all the documents which are available with them. If any document is not available they will file affidavit explaining the custody of the documents. Respondents shall file those documents within a period of four weeks. Civil Application is disposed of.
